

Construction Safety Guidelines No. 29

Site Transportation

Identify the Area	Written Procedure	Toolbox Talk
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Specific area for the pick-up and drop-off point must be identified with relative proximity to the areas of work.</li> <li>Proper barriers to hold the line for maintaining the queue.</li> <li>Area must be free from dust and other obstacles.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A written procedure must be established for the movement of employees on the pick-up / drop-down area.</li> <li>This procedure must be posted in different languages and communicated to all staff.</li> <li>Disciplinary action must be taken against the violating drivers.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Procedure must be communicated to all site operatives.</li> <li>Operators must be delegated of their task and responsibility as well as their role in site implementation.</li> <li>Bus drivers should undergo specific training as per RTA rules &amp; regulations.</li> </ul>

Pedestrian &amp; Vehicle Segregation	Signages	Monitoring &amp; Supervision
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Pedestrian route must be provided and separated to avoid mishap involving workers crossing the roads from different directions.</li> <li>Additional precautions must be taken and flash lights / flag man required to be placed during foggy / adverse weather.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Display clear directional signages leading to the identified point.</li> <li>Mandatory and Informatory signs must be displayed to enhance awareness of the implemented procedure.</li> <li>"T" junctions and invisible areas must have appropriate control measures to avoid collision.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Supervision must be in place at time of pick up &amp; drop off.</li> <li>It is the responsibility of employer to provide safe transportation for all employees to and from each work station and accommodation.</li> <li>Adequate no of buses must be provided to meet legal capacity requirements.</li> <li>Vehicles must be maintained in good condition.</li> </ul>